

Cecilia M. Frerotte, CPA

Principal

---

OVERVIEW

Cecilia is a Principal in Wolf's Audit Group, where she is responsible for delivering external audit services, managing audit teams, and ensuring that clients receive customized services to fit their individual needs. She has over 12 years of experience in public accounting and has worked with a variety of organizations including start-ups, service businesses, software developers, medical device companies, distributors, franchisees, and non-profits.

Cecilia has also worked in industry at a large foreign-owned biopharmaceutical company, which lends a unique perspective to her client relationships as she had been responsible for financial and benefit plan reporting in that environment.

AREAS OF EXPERTISE

Cecilia's experience includes providing internal control and accounting guidance to start-ups, family-owned, and closely-held businesses throughout New England. She is a member of Wolf's Technology Services Team, which provides guidance on accounting for complex debt, equity, and revenue transactions to our technology clients.

ON A PERSONAL NOTE

Cecilia lives in Brookline, MA with her son. She delights in listening to NPR podcasts and spending time exploring the city and taking road trips with her son.

EDUCATION AND CERTIFICATIONS

Graduate of University of Pittsburgh, summa cum laude
Certified Public Accountant (CPA)

MEMBERSHIPS AND ORGANIZATIONS

Finance Committee Member, Coolidge Corner Theatre Foundation
Finance Committee Member, Mass Insight Education & Research
Advisory Board Member, The Capital Network
Advisory Board Member, Center for Women's Entrepreneurial Leadership at Babson College