

Tracy L. Hall, MBCP

IT Assurance Senior Manager

---

OVERVIEW

Tracy is a Senior Manager in the Information Technology (IT) Assurance Services group. Tracy is one of the leading business continuity planning experts in the country. With over twenty years of experience, Tracy assists clients in areas of business continuity planning including; plan audit and assessment, business impact analysis, plan development and maintenance, training and awareness, and simulation exercises.

AREAS OF EXPERTISE

Tracy's clients span multiple industries, including financial services, insurance, manufacturing, healthcare, and retail. In addition to assisting her clients in preparing and executing disaster recovery tests and simulation exercises, she has experience in assisting clients recover fully from actual disasters. Tracy is a popular speaker both regionally and nationally, and has authored articles on pertinent topics related to business continuity planning.

ON A PERSONAL NOTE

Tracy lives in Southington, CT with her two sons, Tyler and Trevor. She enjoys traveling and spending time with family and friends. Tracy can be found supporting her sons' many activities, which include baseball, skiing, golf, and fishing.

EDUCATION AND CERTIFICATIONS

Graduate of Southern Connecticut State University, cum laude
Master's Certification in Business Continuity (MBCP) from the Disaster Recovery Institute, with a demonstrated proficiency in industry best practices

MEMBERSHIPS AND ORGANIZATIONS

Association of Contingency Planners (ACP), Connecticut Chapter
New England Disaster Recovery Exchange (NEDRIX)